Halloween Bingo Night

Consider hosting a Halloween Bingo Night: have your players dress up, and by a round of applause/showing of hands, award the group's best costumed guest with a free buy-in for them and a guest... for a future bingo night.

Announce this prize ahead of time and that may spur more customers to invest in a winning costume for that night! Fun for all! Also, consider incorporating the Halloween-themed patterns shown above into your 'Scary Night!' And don't forget our festive Halloween ink dabbers to compliment your October bingo nights! Hurry - while supplies last!

Most importantly: check our website for ideas on how you can reinforce the cleanliness and safety of your venue - and welcome back your players - as we celebrate the fall season!

*Don't hesitate to ask your local businesses for gifts you can use for prizes!
It's great advertising for your local business owners!*

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Check out our Pink Ribbon bingo ink markers and create a 'Pink Night': use our pink paper, our wonderful Breast Cancer Awareness dabbers, and encourage your patrons to wear 'pink'. You can award a prize to the 'Prettiest in Pink' patron, such as a free buy-in package at a future bingo.

You can also consider a pink pumpkin for your 'Pink Night' as a giveaway at one of your games or as a door prize. Don't hesitate to ask your local grocer/craft store for that contribution. It can be a purchased plastic pumpkin or a real pumpkin hand painted with a message. Who knows: the pink pumpkin - whether shown at your game or on the doorstep of the winner's home - may give someone the push they need to schedule a mammogram: a win-win and for all!

November is a special time for honoring our Veterans

Check out our patriotic ink dabbers and create a 'Thank You, Veterans' bingo night, celebrating those to whom we are eternally grateful.

Thanksgiving: Why not "give thanks!"

Consider a bingo night where players are asked to bring in a non-perishable food item, and then enter their names into a drawing for a free buy-in package at a future bingo. The non-perishable food items can then be donated to a local food bank. It's a 'feel good' evening with a great outcome!

Plan ahead and enjoy this wonderful season - full of so many reasons for celebrations - and don't forget to ask your local businesses for gifts you can use for prizes. It's great advertising for your local businesses, and may help all of us, get 'back on our feet!'

Christmas will be here before you know it!

It's not too early to think of your Christmas/December events, so while you're online checking out our great offering of products for the fall season, don't forget to check the Christmas ink dabbers: new designs for this year!
