The road leads to BINGO!

for the HOLIDAYS

Winter can be a fun filled time as we prepare for the holidays and celebrate friends and family. As we move into the New Year, remember that no winter lasts forever, so make the most of this season that brings people 'indoors.' Create fun evenings at your bingos with the following themes!

Try some Christmas themed patterns to liven up your bingo as we prepare and enjoy the holiday season. Also, see if a local craft shop might donate a handmade holiday wreath as a prize for one of your bingos: a great way to promote your game and to promote a local business!

Consider spicing up your Christmas bingo and instead call it Christmas C-A-N-D-Y: C for Christmas, A for Angel, N for North Pole/Nutcracker, D for Decorate, and Y for Yuletide. Have a basket of candy (see if you can get a donation from a local store) and with each winner, allow them to pick out some candy from the basket! Candy canes would be a great addition to the basket! See how much fun it is for your players to now hear “North Pole 45” (for example) – and keep the game going at a clip so that everyone needs to listen carefully to the ‘new’ Christmas B-I-N-G-O – now: C-A-N-D-Y!

Ring in the New Year!

With the New Year right around the corner, consider hosting a special game to celebrate using the bingo patterns below. Perhaps a local business can donate a set of glasses – with which the winner can ‘toast’ in the New Year!

You might even want to consider a coverall game – and call it “MIDNIGHT” – undoubtedly the ‘finale’ of the evening – and consider a special prize for the winner of that game! And don’t forget to check out our Celebrate ink dabbers: a great compliment to your New Year’s bingo event!

Have a fabulous holiday season and stay tuned for more exciting bingo ideas in 2023...
