Summer’s over; routines have returned – let’s celebrate the ‘return to school!’ Think of the disciplines of packing lunches, buying school supplies, attending school sports events – and tap into a local business to see if they can donate a ‘basket’ of school supplies for a game winner. Also consider making your own prize basket/gift bag by sourcing items from your local dollar store! Whatever you do, have fun!

November 11th: Remembrance Day (Canada) & Veterans' Day (US)

Whether American or Canadian: celebrate a veteran! Ask your patrons to bring a veteran to your Remembrance Day/Veterans' Day bingo and honor the military veterans of our Armed Forces. Perhaps have a contest, asking patrons why Remembrance Day/Veterans' Day is always November 11? Award a free buy-in package to the first person with the correct answer! Remind everyone that this date is always November 11 as it recognizes the formal agreement that marked the official end of World War I. On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918, allied forces and Germany came together to sign the peace treaty.

PATRIOTIC BINGO
